

User Stories for BillBuddy

User Story 1: Effortless Travel Expense Management

As a frequent traveler,
I want to automatically split and track expenses with my friends during trips, so that I can ensure fair cost-sharing without the hassle of manual calculations or awkward financial discussions.

User Story 2: Simplified Household Budgeting

As a parent managing household expenses,
I want to log and categorize shared costs with my spouse, so that we can track spending, fairly divide payments, and maintain financial transparency.

User Story 3: Personal and Shared Expense Separation

As a freelance writer with variable income,
I want to organize my personal and shared expenses into separate categories, so that I can better budget, monitor cash flow, and manage financial responsibilities without confusion.

User Story 4: Instant Payment Settlements

As a tech-savvy professional,
I want to link my BillBuddy account with Venmo, PayPal, or Zelle, so that I can instantly settle balances, avoid payment delays, and streamline financial transactions with friends and colleagues.
